The above pact of prayer was signed in Cincinnati in 1839 by Bishop John Baptist Purcell and Fathers Gacon, Cheymol, Machebeuf, Lamy, Navarron, Olivetti and Huber. (Courtesy of the Archives, Ursuline Sisters, Brown County, Ohio.)

A PROMISE OF PRAYER

The Rev. John Baptist Purcell, president of Mt. St. Mary's, Emmitsburg, Maryland was named second Bishop of Cincinnati in 1833. "His spotless virtue, together with his learning and his other amiable and illustrious qualities" (1) rendered him worthy of the high honor. A few years later, in 1838, his great need for additional laborers caused him to make a trip to Europe to seek missionaries for the struggling mid-west Diocese in America. His efforts were not without success. Landing in New York in August, 1839, he had seven priests with him. They were to render valuable service for the church in the years to come. They were Rev. William Cheymol (1811-1885) and Rev. Claude Gacon (1798-1865), who were to be together for many years at the Ursuline Motherhouse in Brown County, Ohio; Rev. Louis Navarron (1807-1882), who served the French settlements in Darke and Shelby counties for many years and later was at Owensville in Clermont County; Rev. John Baptist Lamy (1814-1888), who was the first resident pastor at Danville, Ohio, and served many missions of that area, and later became the legendary Archbishop of Santa Fe; Rev. Michael E. Olivetti (1813-1863), who served the missions of Perry County for some years in his early priesthood; Rev. Joseph Projectus Machebeuf, who spent many years in the area of the present Diocese of Toledo and was a close personal friend of Father Lamy, and later became Bishop of Denver; and Rev. Huber, O.F.M., about whom there is little information.

Apparently the little group upon arrival in Cincinnati, before departure to various missionary duties, signed a promise of prayer for one another. The pact in French, was as follows:

IN UNION OF PRAYER

Bishop Purcell and the undersigned bind ourselves to say each day three Ave Maria for one another in order to draw down the protection of the Holy Virgin on us personally and on our work.

Each year we shall offer four times the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass for the repose of the soul of any one of us who dies.

OLD ST. PETER'S, TUSCARAWAS COUNTY,
DESTROYED BY FIRE

One of the most venerable of the old churches of the Diocese of Columbus was destroyed by fire October 24. Built in 1840-1841, old St. Peter's served as the center of Catholicity for a settlement of German and French farmers of Lawrence Township, Tuscarawas County. It was located in what became known as the "Hessian Hills."

Up until the time of its destruction, old St. Peter's stood sound and firm except for the damage of vandals to the interior in recent years. It was truly a landmark in the history of the Church in Tuscarawas County, if not, indeed, for all of Ohio. A thorough and documented history of Old St. Peter's was written in 1952 by the Very Rev. John M. Lenhart, O.F.M. Cap. His work is an example of what should be done to preserve the story of Catholic pioneers, priests and laity.

A frame church, painted white, St. Peter's stood on an elevated spot which gave it the dignity it deserved. Behind it are buried the remains of the sturdy men and women who cherished it and adored their God before its altar. Made of solid walnut boards, the altar, too was lost in the fire.

Up until a few years ago, Mass was celebrated only annually in the old church. The occasion each year was something of a homecoming. With no one living close by, shielded from view by forests, it became the prey of vandals. The front doors were frequently broken open and the windows destroyed. The interior was almost completely destroyed. *

Over the broken entrance doors was a sign which read, "Old St. Peter's Shrine. First Catholic Church in Tuscarawas County. Erected 1839."
